Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission:

To participate with the body of Christ in responsible evangelism, to bring dignity, self-worth and encouragement through leadership development and to meet the physical needs of people through humanitarian assistance.

2 Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ? Yes No

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O.

3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services? Yes No

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O.

4 Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.

4a (Code:) (Expenses $ 183,419 including grants of $ 0) (Revenue $ 2,523)

Zimbabwe - CWO operates a mobile orphan ministry called "Our Kids" which is derived from the African concept that views every child in a community as belonging to everyone in the community. This program allows children to stay in the communities in which they have been born instead of being institutionalized. Providing home care, food and scholarships, children in the Our Kids program receive on-going counseling, AIDS education, skills development, and opportunities for micro-income generating projects and weekend life skills camps. CWO currently has 5 young people who have gone through the program and are now involved in higher education at universities and trade schools. Currently 305 children are being supported through the Our Kids program. CWO provides training for local church Pastors and community leaders. In 2016, 259 pastors and leaders, the majority of which have had no formal schooling, attended seminars. The goal of leadership training is to provide individuals with skills that can be used to improve the conditions in churches, schools, communities and the entire country. The training sessions teach pastors how to deal with the practical and spiritual questions people are facing on a daily basis. CWO created a free resource library in Zimbabwe to provide pastor and church lay-leaders with resource materials to help them prepare sermons, conduct small groups and provide educational materials in Biblical studies.

4b (Code:) (Expenses $ 211,707 including grants of $ 0) (Revenue $ 6,883)

Haiti - Christian World Outreach (CWO) began working in Haiti in 1978 and is currently operating a children's feeding program, evangelistic camps, two vocational training centers and involved with church development and leadership development. CWO feeds an average of 63 children three times a week from the neighborhood around its headquarters in Port-au-Prince. Approximately 9,038 meals were served in 2016. CWO is currently working with eight partner churches which are located mostly in rural and remote areas of northeast Haiti. CWO helps the pastors develop strong ministries within their churches and to that reach out to men, women and youth in their communities. CWO works the pastors and churches through training sessions teaching pastors and lay-leaders how to understand the practical and spiritual questions people face on a daily basis. In 2016, 135 pastors and leaders attended the annual leadership conference. Two evangelistic camps were held which were attended by 235 people from the areas of the eight CWO churches. CWO operates two Feminine Training Center in Port-au-Prince and Mirebalais, providing women with vocational skills so they are able to obtain employment or start their own business and provide for themselves and their families. The women learn skills in sewing, cooking, cake decorating, crafts and cosmetology. In 2016, 145

Burkina Faso - Christian World Outreach (CWO) began working in Burkina in 2001 and has developed a vocational training center for young ladies, developed and continuing to test an agriculture program, has created a library, and has developed a mobile clinic. Classes in sewing and cosmetology are being conducted at the Village of Opportunity (VOO). There are currently 55 young ladies attending classes. The goal of the vocational training center is to provide classes in sewing, cosmetology, English, French, business, and Bible so the young ladies can improve their lives and those in the villages they come from. Shade houses are being used as a training tool for the young ladies where produce is grown year round. There are now five 90 foot shade houses being used to produce vegetables which are used to feed the students at the vocational school and to supplement the food given to 200 children in a nearby school. CWO has developed a mobile clinic which is taking health and medical care to the people in the villages. They have treated 732 people in visits by the end of 2016. The learning library is divided into two sections. The first is available to 500 children who have never had access to books in their villages. There are about 100 per week who are read to in

Section A. All Supporting Organizations

		Yes	No
1	Are all of the organization's supported organizations listed by name in the organization's governing documents? If "No," describe in Part VI how the supported organizations are designated. If designated by class or purpose, describe the designation. If historic and continuing relationship, explain.
2	Did the organization have any supported organization that does not have an IRS determination of status under section 509(a)(1) or (2)? If "Yes," explain in Part VI how the organization determined that the supported organization was described in section 509(a)(1) or (2).
3a	Did the organization have a supported organization described in section 501(c)(4), (5), or (6)? If "Yes," answer (b) and (c) below.
3b	Did the organization confirm that each supported organization qualified under section 501(c)(4), (5), or (6) and satisfied the public support tests under section 509(a)(2)? If "Yes," describe in Part VI when and how the organization made the determination.
3c	Did the organization ensure that all support to such organizations was used exclusively for section 170(c)(2)(B) purposes? If "Yes," explain in Part VI what controls the organization put in place to ensure such use.
4a	Was any supported organization not organized in the United States ("foreign supported organization")? If "Yes," and if you checked 12a or 12b in Part I, answer (b) and (c) below.
4b	Did the organization have ultimate control and discretion in deciding whether to make grants to the foreign supported organization? If "Yes," describe in Part VI how the organization had such control and discretion despite being controlled or supervised by or in connection with its supported organizations.
4c	Did the organization support any foreign supported organization that does not have an IRS determination under sections 501(c)(3) and 509(a)(1) or (2)? If "Yes," explain in Part VI what controls the organization used to ensure that all support to the foreign supported organization was used exclusively for section 170(c)(2)(B) purposes.
5a	Did the organization add, substitute, or remove any supported organizations during the tax year? If "Yes," answer (b) and (c) below (if applicable). Also, provide detail in Part VI, including (i) the names and EIN numbers of the supported organizations added, substituted, or removed; (ii) the reasons for each such action; (iii) the authority under the organization's organizing document authorizing such action; and (iv) how the action was accomplished (such as by amendment to the organizing document).
5b	Type I or Type II only. Was any added or substituted supported organization part of a class already designated in the organization's organizing document?
5c	Substitutions only. Was the substitution the result of an event beyond the organization's control?

After it has been prepared the CWO president reviews the Form 990 and submits it to the CWO finance committee. The finance committee submits to the CWO board. The finance committee is comprised of individuals such as CFO's and CEO's.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c - The policy is reviewed at the first board meeting each year. Each board member and key employee must sign the certificate page of this document. Disclosure of potential conflicts must be made to the president (or if he is the one with the conflict, then to the chairman of the board or secretary of the board), who is required to bring the matter to the attention of the board. The board will then determine if there is a conflict of interest and whether the transaction may be authorized.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15 - In determining compensation of the organization's president, comparable data is used to aid in the decision making process. The compensation policy is monitored by independent members of the board of directors. All decisions and deliberations are documented in the board minutes.

Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19 - The organization makes its governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements available to the public upon request. The financial statements and donor privacy policy are also available on the organization's website.

	Zambia - Christian World Outreach field staff in Zambia have created a HIV/AIDS prevention & education program that combats the stigma often associated with the disease, teaches sustainable prevention, and focuses on care for those who have HIV/AIDS. HIV/AIDS education is taught at Anti-AIDS clubs, primary schools and universities, community groups, youth groups and churches. An average of 202 people each month received some portion of AIDS awareness training. The staff also counsel those with HIV/AIDS and some of their families. CWO staff in Zambia reaches out to 106 young men who have been shunned and discarded by society by sharing meals, having a Bible studies and discussing hardships or concerns in their lives. They also assist these young men in caring for themselves and have sponsored a soccer team for them. English lessons have been valuable and school exam scores have improved for those who participate. The young men now believe they have something to contribute to society instead of destroying it increasing their self-esteem and self respect. CWO has a free library available for use by students. An average of 57 students each month came to the library to study in 2016. This translates to more students passing their final exams and continuing on to the University, which ultimately means a society of educated individuals who can have a positive impact on the entire nation.	124,429		6,769
	Mexico - CWO has Ministry Partners giving individuals or groups the opportunity to do work they feel called to do. The years of CWO staff experience offer individuals the chance make their time serving profitable and not spend time with administrative work. In 2016 one individual served using her skills to help an orphanage in Tijuana, Mexico. CWO supported this person by helping them prepare for service, printing newsletters, receipting donations, and provided encouragement during their time serving. This work assisted 40 children at the orphanage as well as 30 more in the community. They helped 35 families outside the orphanage through building homes. Work in the community also involved by supplying food and medical care for 150 in a home for elderly people and 155 men and women in a hospice and rehab home.	20,885		0
